Brief Abstract of Letter.

Submits for orders, the petitions received from Venkatarama Raju Jamapal Raju claiming the pension enjoyed by late Chowdamma, & recommends that the pension be continued in the name of Venkatarama Raju for reasons stated

NOTES AND ORDERS.

On the death of Venkatapathi Raju in 1897, issueless, his Pallepar Pension of Rs 38-2-3 was sanctioned to his mother Chowdamma in G.O. No. PP.83-84 dt 16-3-1898 for the maintenance of the family members - viz - deceased's sister - Keshavamma, her husband & a male child

2. The Huzur Treasury officer reports that Chowdamma died on the 20th April 1906 leaving no direct issue & recommends that the pension of Rs 38-2-3 drawn by her may be continued to Venkatrama Raju, as he happens to be a nearer relative than the 2nd petitioner Jamapal Raju, who is already in receipt of a Palleyar Pension of Rs 15-7-0 p.m.

3. On comparing the Genealogical Tree now sent by the Huzur Treasury officer with that of the one sent in 1898, there seems to be a lot of discrepancies in the names etc. For instance, in the old G.Tree The name of Chowdamma's daughter is noted as Kesavamma & in the one now sent it is noted as Késhamma. The report does not give any particulars as the condition in life of the deceased's daughter children, husband etc & as to under whose protection she now is.

4. Palleyar Pensions are hereditary in character and the rules regarding succession generally followed according to Hindu Law & in some cases according to the circumstances of life

15. If it is the intention of Govt - as it is - that these polyam pensions should devolve according to the Hindu Law of inheritance, there is nothing objectionable to give a pension to an heir however remote he may be. But the Govt are not bound to continue any pension at all.

16. Considered in relation to the last male holder, the petitioner may be a very remote heir, but when viewed as a descendant of the original grantee he is quite as nearly related to him as the last holder himself. But for the accident that the petitioner's forefather had also brothers who took away a portions of the original pension he would now be enjoying that share of the pension also which he now claims.

18) According to the genealogical tree attached to the Dr. Offr's letter, Venkatarazu is the nearest heir. But he has consented that the pension may be given to the 1st Petr Venkataramadazu. So if the pension is to be continued, it should be given to him.

19) On the question of Continuance, I think that Govt has committed itself to treat these pensions as property heritable under the Rules of Hindu Law. (Papers marked Q & R.) In para 7 of Order of 29.10.1887, it is stated that Palleyar pensions were partly granted in lieu of Palleput lands. If so, it is but just that they should be continued as long as there are legal heirs.

20) In his opinion given on 11 Jan 1909, the Government Advocate says that a Political pension is not in the strict sense of the term, heritable property under the Hindu Law. I do not know what his authority is for this statement. If I remember correctly, the term Nibandhee (translated as Grody) is equivalent to a pension from State, and is mentioned as property in which father & son have equal ownership. (The passage is quoted in Colebrooke's translation of Mitakshara Ch. I S. 5 & the meaning of the term may be verified). Perhaps Govt may ~~have~~ exercise a power outside the Sphere of Private law in respect of political pensions. As a question of political expediency also, I am not sure whether it would not be the right course to continue these political pensions as long as there are legal heirs.

descends from generation to generation and adoption is also recognized there is practically no lapse.

25) In the majority of cases of political pensions in British India, the Govt of India expressly reserve the right to reconsider the question at each succession and it is therefore possible to reduce the amount of pension of a particular family with the lapse of time & ultimately to extinguish it altogether. Moreover, I think, in British India, adoption would not be recognized except in very special cases.

For example. Tipoo Sultan's family now gets only about Rs 34000 a year from British Govt. W.

26) From the Mysore Govt order of 29.10.1887 it appears that the case of Palleyar pensions in Mysore is somewhat different. At the time of grant of these pensions no right to reduce or readjust was, apparently as far as I can see, reserved to Govt. and the practice for a long series of years has been to continue the whole pension according to the same rule of succession as applies to Pallepat lands i.e. (as far as I can make out) the ordinary Hindu law of inheritance. On the question of continuance therefore I agree with the views contained in the Second Councillor's minute dated 15.12.1910.

Question of transferring the Pollegaré pension of Rs. 38-2-3 enjoyed by the late Chowdamma, to one Venkalārama Raju.

Opinion recorded.

GBPM—9-6-10—300

Submitted to His Highness.

35) These papers relate to the disposal of the pension of Rs.38-2-3 per mensem, enjoyed by the late Chowdamma of the Anegondi Pallegar family.

36 2. The question has undergone much discussion as the office notes will shew.

37 3. Before Chowdamma the pension was enjoyed by her son Venkatapathiraju. On his death in 1897 without nearer heirs, it was ~~devolved on~~ granted his mother the said Chowdamma for the maintenance of the family, which then consisted of herself, her daughter Kesavamma with the latter's husband and a male child. All these are now dead without issue, whether natural or adopted, and the nearest claimant is Chowdamma's husband's brother's son, named Venkataramaraju and the question is whether the pension is to be continued to such a remote relation.

38 4. The Councillors are of opinion that Pallegar pensions having been in the past regarded as hereditary pensions inheritable according to Hindu Law, they must be continued in the person of some surviving member of the family howsoever remotely connected.

54 5. The Government Advocate who was consulted is of pinion that being a Political pension, it is not in its trict sense of the term heritable property. He adds Really, the allowances are political pensions and will b_ t the disposal of Government when the holders die. It is pen to Government to withhold them altogether or distri- ute the whole or a part only of the same among all or ome only of the heirs of the deceased pensioners".

56 6. In the exercise of a wise discretion, Government- ave indeed continued lapsed pensions to near heirs of the eceased for the maintenance of a family where existing. hey have granted maintenance to female members of fami- ies and recognized adoptions where adoptions were made. But all this does not mean that the Pallegar pensions can ever lapse to Government. It seems to me that in a case like the present, where there are no near heirs - natural or adopted-, nor any members of the family who are depend- ent upon the deceased's pension, it is eminently one which ought to lapse to Government.

61 7. I submit the papers for orders.

Submitted to His Highness.

In Mr. Campbell's D.O.No.392 dated 19th June 1911 conveying His Highness' orders on the file relating to the disposal of the Palyegar pension of Rs.38-2-3, enjoyed by the late Chowdamma of the Anegondi Palyegar family, it was stated that His Highness prefers to continue the pension, but that it may be divided so as to equalize the pension drawn by the two different families represented by the two rival claimants.

2. Before issuing orders the General Secretary re-submitted the case in view of the fact that there were some other pensioners of the same family who seemed entitled to a share in the pension as the two claimants referred to in the D.O. and from whom applications had also been received.

3. The matter has been further considered and discussed as the office notes will shew. It is now proposed, if His Highness has no objection, to divide the vacant pension of Rs.38-2-3 among all the members of the family, so as to equalize, as far as possible, the pension drawn by th different branches.

Most Respected Sir,

I beg to submit that I am in receipt of pension through my elder Brother Lakemmam Rajah Deeng a member of the Anagondi pallegar family. One Lakowdamma a relative of mine who was drawing a pension of Rs 3.8-2-3 died in April 1910 leaving no heirs. As per late Chief Commissioners proceedings when a pallegar pensioner dies leaving no heirs the pension is to be denided among the other relatives of the same family. I herewith enclose a genealogical tree of our family for your kind perusal & reference & beg that I may be ordered to get my share of the deceased Lakowdamma's pension since the date of her death.
